

Second Annual
Commercial Feeder Cattle
Show and Sale

Monday, November 11 • 10:30 a.m.

In conjunction with regular weekly auction.

The Commercial Feeder Cattle Show and Sale is a competition for commercial cattlemen to highlight their fall calf crop.

A panel of judges, including a USDA Grader, will evaluate pens of 8-10 commercial feeder cattle weighing 400-700 pounds based on their confirmation and consistency. Judges will also consider value-added programs and genetic information.

- Entries will be divided into steer and heifer divisions
- Cattle must be weaned at least 45 days
- Cattle must be vaccinated according to the UPI Yellow Tag Program
- Pens can feature cattle from more than one producer
- All cattle will sell after being judged.

Awards for each division: Grand Champion Pen - $1000
Reserve Champion Pen - $500

*New this Year: All Cattle must be delivered Sunday, November 10, from noon - 9 p.m.
