

Caitlin BUSALD

Caitlin joined the UPI team in May 2016 with experience in meat sciences and agricultural lending. She graduated from The Ohio State University in 2012, where she majored in animal sciences and earned a Bachelor of Science in Agriculture.

Caitlin enjoys the flexibility in UPI's service to its borrowers, as well as working with a close-knit cooperative and credit services team.

"I enjoy being able to help a borrower improve their operation, whether it's through an expansion, purchase, or just fine tuning their balance sheet to improve cash flow or save them money," said Caitlin.

Caitlin grew up on a grain and livestock farm in northwest Ohio and has been around production agriculture her entire life. She is now married with three children and they live in East Central Indiana. Her family has a small farm where they raise crops and 15-20 beef cows.
