OUR EDGE IS RISK MANAGEMENT.

UPI's risk management services include:

- Futures/hedging of price for finished livestock and feeder cattle
- Put and Call options
- Packer contracts: reserve shackle space and protect basis
- Daily market reports and analysis
- Livestock Insurance
- Rainfall Index: Pasture, Rangeland and Forage Insurance

Our livestock insurance can help you protect your bottom line.

- Federally insured program
- Premiums are subsidized
- Select from a variety of coverage levels and insurance periods
- Coverage may be purchased throughout the year
- At the end of the insurance period, if the actual ending value is below the guarantee, an indemnity would be paid for the difference.

TERMS & CONDITIONS

- Each bidder must be properly registered and conform to UPI buyers requirements.
- Cattle must be weighed on certified scales.
- All cattle are sold FOB the farm of origin.
- The Auctioneer reserves the right to reject any or all bids.
- If any disputes arise between two or more bidders, the Auctioneer may put the lot up for sale again and resell to the highest bidder. The decision of the Auctioneer shall be final.
- The record of the sale kept by the Auctioneer and Clerk will be taken as the final in the event of any dispute.
- Any purchase with a delivery date of more than 29 days from the date of sale will be required to make a partial payment of $50.00/hd within 7 days of sale.
- Acceptable payment is as follows: Payment must be received by UPI on the day after the cattle are received by the buyer. All payments must be made by either wire transfer, or a check sent by some form of overnight carrier such as UPS, Fed Ex, etc. All fees incurred for wire transfer or overnight delivery will be at the buyer's expense. In the event of multiple day shipments, payments will be required on each day's delivery, unless approved prior to first shipment. All payments are made in US Dollars. All payments will be made to United Producers Inc. general account.

Overnight Delivery:

United Producers Inc.

8351 North High St, Suite 250

Columbus Ohio 43235

- Any announcements made during the sale will take precedence over the printed material.

TRUCK LOAD LOTS

All cattle will be sold in truck load lots unless otherwise stated. The head count stated in the contract will be adjusted to fit the trucks in order to keep the weight at contract specifications. If the cattle are heavier or lighter than estimated, the seller will adjust the head count up or down to fit total represented weight in the contract. Seller is obligated to deliver headcount specified in the contract. Failure to do so will result in a freight adjustment made by the seller based on the difference between contracted pay weight and actual pay weight. Seller is responsible for freight adjustment for weight under 10% of the estimated weight stated in the contract after headcount obligation has been met (not to exceed 50,000 pounds gross weight per truck). UPI reserves the right to make an additional adjustment, charging the seller and compensating the buyer, for loss of value for number of cattle short of contracted headcount.

TRANSFER OF TITLE

Seller warrants to UPI and the buyer that seller has good and marketable title to the livestock sold and that the livestock will be delivered free from all security interests, liens or encumbrances. If said livestock are subject to a lien, security interest or chattel mortgage in favor of the party stated in the contract, this lien, security interest or encumbrance shall be satisfied by seller prior to or at delivery. Seller agrees to defend title to the livestock, indemnify and hold UPI and buyer harmless from any and all loss or damage on account of any liens, encumbrances and other defects in the title. There are no warranties expressed or implied beyond what is expressly set forth in this contract. A delay in payment by buyer is not to be considered an extension of credit by UPI.

LIEN OF UNITED PRODUCERS, INC.

UPI shall have a lien for all expenses, commissions, and outlays of every sort, including legal expenses and counsel fees, and for all liabilities that shall be made or incurred by seller in connection with the consignment. As security for the commissions and expenses of UPI, UPI shall have a general lien on all of the contracted cattle and all of the proceeds of the sale, including accounts, promissory notes, drafts and any other evidence of indebtedness arising out of any sale by UPI, on behalf of the seller. Buyer accepts and hereby agrees title to all contracted cattle remains the property of UPI, and that the contracted cattle will not be resold or reassigned to any other party, until UPI receives full payment from the buyer.

RISK OF LOSS

The seller will be liable for loss of the cattle until they are loaded onto buyer's trucks. UPI will deduct insurance to cover the cattle during the time which we start sorting and loading the cattle this insurance is optional, it will be deducted from the check unless a waiver is signed prior to the sale. The buyer assumes all risk of loss for the cattle after they are loaded on buyer's trucks.

BEEF INDUSTRY COUNCIL

UPI will act as agent for the Beef Industry Council and collect the mandatory $1.00 per head check off, and any additional check offs that are required by the state of origin. Seller agrees to have this fee deducted from proceeds of the sale.

INCIDENTAL EXPENSES

Since January 1, 2015, all feeder cattle moved out of the state of origin must be accompanied by a Certificate of Health Inspection from an accredited veterinarian. It is the Buyer's responsibility to furnish necessary information at least 3 days prior to weigh up in order to obtain certificate from the Seller. It shall be the Seller's responsibility to pay for and provide the certificate or the information necessary to secure a certificate from the veterinarian.

Seller is also responsible for incidental expenses such as but not limited to yardage, brand inspection and weighing charges.

IN CASE OF BID DISPUTE

If any dispute arises between two or more bidders, UPI reserves the right to immediately put the lot up for sale again and resell to the highest bidder. The decision of UPI shall be final and absolute. All sale day information and changes announced will take precedence over any material printed prior to the sale.

DELIVERY

UPI will deliver only to the original buyer. This contract is not assignable. The agent representing UPI shall have the right at delivery, to sort and reject any cattle that are not in good, strong, and healthy shipping condition. Unmerchantable cattle include but are not limited to crippled, lame, deformed, bulls, stags, lump jaw, bad backs, locos, bad eyed, non-performers, unhealthy cattle and shorts. Any cattle added to the cattle described in the contract after the date of the auction without the approval of the buyer may not be accepted by the buyer.

DELIVERY DATES

If uncontrollable circumstances such as weather, availability of trucks, death, etc. requires seller or buyer to request minor changes to the delivery dates outside of the contract delivery date range, UPI has the authority to make adjustments to accommodate the particular circumstance.

BUYER DEFAULT

Default shall exist if full and final payment is not received within one day from the date buyer takes possession of the livestock described herein, or if the check given in payment for the livestock is dishonored, or upon the death, bankruptcy, or insolvency of the buyer or upon the sale of said livestock without UPI's written permission. Upon default, UPI, with or without notice, may exercise any and all rights accorded to it by law and this contract, including, but not limited to the following: if buyer defaults, he will forfeit his $50.00 per head partial payment. The defaulting party shall be liable for actual and incidental damages as are determined by the Uniform Commercial Code, plus court costs and attorney's fees, as well as to any available equitable relief.

SELLER DEFAULT

Upon sellers failure for any reason whatsoever to deliver to buyer all cattle purchased, seller shall promptly pay UPI all commission owed. UPI will refund to the Buyer the total amount of the partial payment advanced by the buyer. The defaulting party shall be liable for actual and incidental damages as are permitted by the Uniform Commercial Code, plus court costs and attorney's fees, as well as to any available equitable relief.

BUYERS TRUCKS

The agent representing UPI shall have the right to make any necessary adjustments concerning shrink at delivery if buyer's trucks are not on time and cause any unnecessary shrinkage to sellers cattle. The buyer assumes responsibility and liability for loss for the cattle upon loading on buyer's trucks. Seller agrees to provide the labor to load the cattle on the trucks.

CATTLE THAT ARE PASSED OVER

Seller will be charged a $4.00 per head fee for cattle passed over.

An aerial photograph of a farm. In the foreground, there's a large, lush green cornfield with rows of crops. To the right, a paved road runs diagonally. Beyond the road, there are several large, silver metal grain silos with conical roofs. In the background, there are more fields, some with curved furrows, and a few farm buildings under a clear sky. A large blue abstract graphic is on the left side of the image.
