

Elizabeth LONG

With 18 years of experience in agricultural lending, Elizabeth Long joined the UPI team in July 2024. She is a 2005 graduate of The Ohio State University, where she obtained her bachelor's degree in animal science.

Elizabeth lives on a cattle and swine farm in Maplewood, Ohio where she is a co-owner of Great River Pork and Beef. She is an active board member of the Ohio FFA Foundation, Logan County Chamber of Commerce, and Farm Women's Symposium. Elizabeth has also volunteered for the Madison County Sales Committee, Madison County Farm Bureau, and founded the Madison County Cattlemen's Association.

Elizabeth's extensive experience in agriculture as a farmer provides her with a unique and valuable perspective as a Credit Service Officer for United Producers, Inc. Her hands-on knowledge of the challenges and intricacies of farming operations enables her to understand the financial needs and risks faced by farmers. Elizabeth's background allows her to offer personalized and practical financial solutions, ensuring that clients receive tailored support. Her empathy and expertise make her an asset to UPI fostering strong relationships with clients and helping them achieve their financial goals.

Elizabeth looks forward to building relationships and partnering with clients to help them achieve their goals.
